

Tuesday 3rd October - CV & Info Session:

Good applications have this in common:

- They persuade and inform an employer about your abilities, experiences and motivations to show you're good for their role.
- They provide evidence to show you meet the requ described
 - Key words
 - Certain tasks, duties etc
 - Named Skills
 - Ethos, key values of the company

What to include in CV:

- Name
- Contact details
- Personal Profile (optional)
- Education/Qualifications
- Employment history/ Work experience
- Skills profile (optional)
- Interests & Achievements (Optional)
- Referencenes

Suggested section order:

- Education:
 - General education and qualifications
 - Use your projects to demonstrate practical experience
 - Most recent first
- Relevant Experience:
 - Your most relevant experiences should be on the first page
 - Think about the transferable skills (teamwork, communication etc)
 - Talk about achievements
- Other Experience:
 - Less details needed here but shows transferable skills,
 - May include outside interests, part-time work, society.

Expressions of interest:

- Your CVs
- A written expression of interest
- A 10-minute pitch video. Consists of:
 - The pitch video
 - 10 – 20 minute Q&A session on MS Teams

Assessment - Components:

Group Deliverable	Component Contribution	Overall Contribution
Eol & Pitch	15%	12%
Interim Report & Prototype	10%	8%
Interim Peer Assessment	-	-
Group Report	25%	20%
Stand / Demo / Presentation	15%	12%
Software / Project Management	35%	28%

Individual Deliverable	Component Contribution	Overall Contribution
CV	20%	4%
Peer Assessment	20%	4%
Individual Report	60%	12%

Assessment - Scaling:

- Assessment considers:
 - Group elements - 80%
 - Individual elements 20%
- Group elements are scaled based on:
 - Individual reports
 - Group deliverables - documentation, code repositories etc
 - Peer assessment (deviation from average)
 - Supervisor moderation.